The Worcestershire Regiment Officer's Service Dress uniform was worn at most times, except on formal occasions, training or fighting. The cap was made from khaki (green/brown) wool, with a brown leather chinstrap over the cap's stiff peak with one small bronze button on each side of the cap. The cap badge was worn at the front and often the bottom tip was over the chinstrap.

Unlike privates, officers had to buy their own caps and uniform items from military approved tailors. Which is why nearly all WW2 British officer's caps look slightly different. This style of cap was worn from the 1920s until 1970 when the badge and button style was changed.

Print out the 8 cap pieces and colour them in, either realistically like the ones in our museum or perhaps more colourful. Now fold the peak over in the middle

1. Glue A onto B.
2. Glue C onto D.
3. Glue E onto F.
4. Glue G onto H.
5. I onto J.
6. K onto L.
7. M onto N.
8. O onto P.
9. Q onto R.
10. S onto T.
11. U onto V.
12. W onto X.
13. Y onto Z.
14. Now glue the TOP to the SIDES by gluing their edges together.
15. Put the cap on your head and glue the REAR BAND loose edge under the FRONT BAND to fit.
